Half term fun for all the family!

Roald Dahl's "The Enormous Crocodile"

Tuesday 27th October 2020 at 2pm

After his successful show for this year's Summer Reading Challenge we are delighted to welcome back storyteller John Kirk with another Roald Dahl classic during October half term.

This time John will be engaging all the family with the story of "The Enormous Crocodile". In the biggest brownest muddiest river in Africa an enormous crocodile is making plans to eat juicy little children for his lunch. Will he succeed or will the other jungle animals stop him?

Suitable for families with cheeky monkeys aged 3 plus make sure you book your free ticket for this great online show which will be presented via Zoom to allow maximum audience interaction! You can book your family's free ticket here using PROMO code: CROC2020 and your library card number.

Praise for John's previous show

- "thank you, we had lots of fun",
- "well done, John, very entertaining",
- "brilliant, thank you"
- "thank you that was fab".
