1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about individuals working with our trust in a voluntary capacity, including governors/trustees.

Our trust, Toddington St George Church of England School, Manor Road, Toddington, Beds, LU5 6AJ, 01525 872360, are the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law.

For our data protection officer see 'Contact us' below.

2. The personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details
- References
- Evidence of qualifications
- Employment details
- Information about business and pecuniary interests

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about you that falls into "special categories" of more sensitive personal data. This includes, but is not restricted to:

- Information about any health conditions you have that we need to be aware of
- Information about disability and access requirements
- Photographs and CCTV images captured in school

We may also collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) information about criminal convictions and offences.

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and social services, and the Disclosure and Barring Service in respect of criminal offence data.

3. Why we use this data

We use the data listed above to:

- a) Establish and maintain effective governance
- b) Meet statutory obligations for publishing and sharing governors details
- c) Facilitate safe recruitment, as part of our safeguarding obligations towards pupils
- d) Undertake equalities monitoring
- e) Ensure that appropriate access arrangements can be provided for volunteers who require them
- f) Use of contact details in an emergency

3.1 Use of your personal data for marketing purposes

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

3.2 Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

4. Our lawful basis for using this data

Our lawful bases for processing your personal data for the purposes listed in section 3 above are as follows:

- For the purposes of a-c from section 3 above, in accordance with the 'public task' basis – we need to process data to fulfil our statutory function as a school as set out here:
  - The lawful bases for processing are set out in Article 6 of the UK GDPR (1) (e) public task. This data is necessary for us to discharge or responsibility to educate children, look after their pastoral needs and to safeguard them. Also, we have a legal obligation for the welfare of volunteers and governors
- For the purposes of a-e from section 3 above, in accordance with the 'legal obligation' basis – we need to process data to meet our responsibilities under law as set out here:
  - The lawful bases for processing are set out in Article 6 of the UK GDPR (1) (c) legal obligation. This data is necessary for us to discharge or responsibility to educate children, look after their pastoral needs and to safeguard them. Your data will be processed under this article to ensure your skills and qualifications are suitable for this legal obligation.
  - Your data is also processed so that we can comply with the Equality Act 2010
- For the purposes of f from section 3 above, in accordance with the 'vital interests' basis – we will use this personal data in a life-or-death situation

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

4.1 Our basis for using special category data

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in UK data protection law:

- We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way
- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in UK data protection law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e. protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal rights
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

5. Collecting this data

While the majority of information we collect about you is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about you will come from you, but we may also hold data about you from:

- Local authorities
- Government departments or agencies
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

6. How we store this data

We keep personal information about you while you volunteer at our school. We may also keep it beyond your work at our school if this is necessary. Our record retention schedule sets out how long we keep information about governors/trustees and other volunteers. A copy of this can be obtained from the School Office Manager (see 'Contact Us')

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

7. Who we share data with

Adapt the list below to reflect the third parties with which you share personal data about governors/trustees and other volunteers. We've suggested some likely third parties, but amend or add to these as needed. Personalise where appropriate (e.g. specify who your local authority is).

In addition, for each third party, explain briefly why you share data with them and what makes the data sharing lawful. We've provided an example as to how you might explain this below (see 'Our local authority').

When listing the types of third parties you share data with below, you should either name each of the specific recipients or just the categories of recipients. If you're naming the categories, be as specific as possible by indicating the type of recipient (i.e. the activities it carries out).

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with UK data protection law), we may share personal information about you with:

- Our local authority Central Bedfordshire Council – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns
- Government departments or agencies - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding and medical concerns
- Our regulator, Ofsted – to comply with our legal obligations to share certain information with them so that they can discharge their responsibility of inspecting the school
- Suppliers and service providers:
  - Text and email provider – to keep you up to date with school information and advice of emergency closure
- Health authorities - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding and health concerns
- Health and social welfare organisations - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding and health concerns
- Professional advisers and consultants - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding and health concerns
- Police forces, courts, tribunals - to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding, health and safety concerns
- Our auditors – to meet our legal statutory and financial reporting obligations

7.1 Transferring data internationally

Where we transfer your personal data to a third-party country or territory, we will do so in accordance with UK data protection law.

In cases where we have to set up safeguarding arrangements to complete this transfer, you can get a copy of these arrangements by contacting us.

8. Your rights

8.1 How to access personal information that we hold about you

You have a right to make a 'subject access request' to gain access to personal information that we hold about you.

If you make a subject access request, and if we do hold information about you, we will (subject to any exemptions that may apply):

- › Give you a description of it
- › Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- › Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- › Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- › Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- › Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

You may also have the right for your personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

If you would like to make a request, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

8.2 Your other rights regarding your data

Under UK data protection law, you have certain rights regarding how your personal data is used and kept safe. For example, you have the right to:

- › Object to our use of your personal data
- › Prevent your data being used to send direct marketing
- › Object to and challenge the use of your personal data for decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- › In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected
- › In certain circumstances, have the personal data we hold about you deleted or destroyed, or restrict its processing
- › Withdraw your consent, where you previously provided it for the collection, processing and transfer of your personal data for a specific purpose
- › In certain circumstances, be notified of a data breach
- › Make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office
- › Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us (see 'Contact us' below).

9. Complaints

We take any complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think that our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

Alternatively, you can make a complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office:

- › Report a concern online at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>
- › Call 0303 123 1113
- › Or write to: Information Commissioner's Office, Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF
